El Dorado Ark,
Jan. 12 1931

Governor Parnell

I am writing to you because we havent anything to eat

You are putting out money to feed the people that are in need, I went this morning to get help and I was turned down I dont know why, - only this The Salvation Army Captain wife is mad at me, and she told the investigating committee something and then they would not help me, and we need help if any one ever did any husband has not had any work since the 15th of nov. he was working for the state highway dept.. and we have 7 children and no income at all and all there is in our house to eat just now is a little flour and we havent had any thing to eat but bread for several days we are willing for our case to be investigated, but they wont ask any one but The Salvation Army now will they take my word, please help us some way, I live on south end of Tex. ave.

Mrs. W. T. Gammel
