Quapaw Treaty, 1824 November 15

Robert Crittenden

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/quapaw-treaty

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation
Quapaw Treaty: Articles of a Treaty between the United States and the Quapaw Nation of Indians, 1824 November 15, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.
Article 1. The Inapapaw Nation of Indians, cede to the United States of America in consideration of the premises and stipulations hereinafter made, all claim to title, which they may have to lands in the state of Arkansas, comprised in the following boundaries: to begin at a point on the Arkansas River, opposite to the fort of Arkansas, and running thence, a due south with course to the Arkansas River and thence up the same to the Saline Fork, and as the Saline Fork to a line due North East course will strike the Arkansas River at Little Rock, and thence up the right bank of the Arkansas River to the place of beginning.

Consideration of the cession made in the 1st article of this Treaty by the aforesaid nations. The United States engage to pay to the four head chiefs of the Inapapaw Nation the sum of five hundred dollars each, in consideration of the cession they will make by removing from their farms, and improvements the payment to be made, at the time they receive their annuity for the year 1826, and also to the said nation the sum of Five Thousand Dollars, to be paid in goods at the signing of this Treaty. And the United States engage to pay to the said Inapapaw Nation One Thousand Dollars in specie annually, for the term of Eleven Years, in addition to their present annuity.

The United States further guarantee to the Inapapaw Nation of Indians, the same right to hunt a bird, and game, as was guaranteed to them by a Treaty concluded at St. Louis in the year of the nation of Indians, and William Clark and August.

The Inapapaw Nation of Indians will hereafter be confined, and confined to the District of Country, the Kindee counties and from a part of said lands. The said Nation not to commence removing to their allotted place, before the Twentieth day of January 1826.

Article 3. For the purpose of facilitating the removal of the said tribes to the district of country allotted to them, and as compensation for the loss sustained, and the inconvenience to which they may be exposed by said removal, the United States will furnish them with corn, meat, and salt, for six months from the first day of January 1826. The United States further agree to furnish a sum not exceeding One thousand Dollars, to be expended by the agent, to facilitate the transportation of the said tribes to the district of country to which they are assigned. The agent, or his agent or interpreter, shall be appointed to accompany said tribes, and reside with the cession, therefore that he may receive James Boone, in consideration of the sum of one thousand dollars, due him from the Inapapaw nation, and recognized in open council: One thousand dollars due him, from the Arkansas Nation, and recognized in open council: One thousand dollars, due him, from the Arkansas Nation, and recognized in open council.

To commence on the Arkansas River opposite to St. Francis, and running up and back, from said river for quantity. And the United States guarantee to the Inapapaw nation, the payment of the said debt of One thousand five Hundred Dollars, either by the satisfaction of the grant made in this Article, or by the payment of said amount in money, exclusive of the amount stipulated to be paid to the said nation by this Treaty.

Article 4. There shall be purchased by the United States, to the following persons being Indians by descent the following tracts of land.

To Francois Ambler, one quarter section of land, commencing at a point on the Arkansas River, opposite the upper end of Wright Daniel's farm, and thence up and back, from said river for the sum of one thousand dollars.

To Joseph Champion, one quarter section of land, commencing near the Quanto, cochín, granted to Francisco Anacleto, and running down and back, from said line, for a quantity to become a half mile from Eighty acres of land, to be laid off, east to include the improvement then in use, and west to beginning in said Eighty acres lying above and adjoining Francisco's grant. The first and Eighty acres of land lying above and adjoining his grant, to eight
Eighty acres of land lying above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic, Eighty acres of land above and adjoining Democratic.

Signed, sealed, and delivered in presence of:

Robert H. Olin, Col. 1st U.S. Art.,

The said party of delivery.

Robert H. Olin, Col. 1st U.S. Art.,

In testimony whereof, the undersigned, in the presence of the United States and the chiefs and warriors of the said nation,

Joseph Nash, Interpreter.

Nahkon, Chief.
Treaty
between United States and Osage Nation
made 13th day of August, 1834.

Harrison.