Johnson Island Ohio Jan^{ry} 1965,

Dear uncle

I have received permission from the Supt. prison, to send to you for some books, I wish if you have the books or any of them, or can get them in your place, you would send them to me, they will a great advantage to me, I will take good care of the books and return them by express when I get them, I hope yourself and family are in good health, my health is good enough, but I have nearly lost the use of my right hand, as you will see by my writing, I fear it will be some time before I can write well again,

I am affectionately yours
A. W. Stewart,
