Biographical/Historical Note

The Military Board of Arkansas was created on May 15, 1861, by resolution of the Arkansas Secession Convention of 1861. The board's duty was to raise the Army of Arkansas, whose units would later be absorbed into the Confederate States Army (CSA). The board helped provide supplies and munitions to the troops. The board consisted of the Governor of Arkansas and two other members.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of the minutes of the Military Board of Arkansas, registers of receipts and claims paid, miscellaneous special and general orders, correspondence, and lists.
