APPLICATION FOR ORDER OF SALE OF PERISHABLE PROPERTY.
Come the plaintiffs, Sarah W. Howard, John W. Howard, J. N. Howard, C. C. Howard and P. T. Howard, and hereby applying for an order of this Court for the sale of the property attached in this action, state:
That said property attached herein consists of corn, hay, cotton that has been picked and cotton yet ungathered in the field; that there are some 350 or 400 bushels of corn gathered, and some 3 or 4 tones of hay baled, and stored in places on the farm, but defendant has abandoned the premises; the cotton picked is piled in an open porch, and the unpicked cotton will soon be valueless. All of said property is subject to be destroyed by fire, or carried away; and an early sale thereof would be for the best interests of the parties to this action, because of its perishable nature or the great expense of properly caring for the same.
Plaintiffs further state that the present whereabouts of defendant are unknown, although they have made diligent inquiry of the wife of defendant and other persons who are related to defendant; that the Sheriff's return on the writ and summons herein shows that said summons cannot be served on defendant, because of his disappearance; and plaintiffs are unable to have notice of this application served on defendant, his family having removed from his usual place of abode.
Wherefore, plaintiffs pray that the Court direct that the property attached herein be sold.

J. H. TOWNSEND,
Attorney for Plaintiffs.
