My Own Huckleberry:—

I want you to set a date for our wedding. I have a ring of two CARROTS, and know we'll make a perfect PEAR. I know I look like a PRUNE to your father, and that he prefers STRING-BEAN Johnnie. But you are the APPLE of my eye and can't be BEET. That bald headed ONION, you call father, may think he's some PUMPKIN, but I would be a CALF to be COW-ed by him. He will want to SQUASH this marriage, so don't say you CANTALOUPE. It would break my heart. LETTUCE get a MECHANICAL COCK-ROACH from the livery and BEET it to-night. We'll have the liveryman give pursuing Pa the wrong STEER, and he will be in a PICKLE. Put your answer in the CHESTNUT tree. Say yes, oh PEACH, and get father's GOAT, and make me

Your happy,

JACK.
