Biographical/Historical Note

The Imboden scrapbook is a bound magazine with numerous newspaper clippings pasted to the pages. Many of the clippings are obituaries of current or former Imboden-area residents. There are also poems, stories, reports of notable residents, and wedding announcements. The scrapbook appears to cover the beginning of the 20th century. Although the creator is unknown, the scrapbook was originally donated to either the Lawrence County Historical Society or Powhatan Historic State Park while the historical society was headquartered at the Powhatan Courthouse.

Scope and Contents

The Imboden scrapbook is a bound magazine with numerous newspaper clippings pasted to the pages. Many of the clippings are obituaries of current or former Imboden-area residents. There are also poems, stories, reports of notable residents, and wedding announcements.
