

Arkansas State Archives

Arkansas Digital Archives

Arkansas Territory

Online exhibits

Court case, United States v. John P. Maxwell, defense in selling liquor to a Native American

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/exhibits-online-arkansas-territory>

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Court case, United States v. John P. Maxwell, defense in selling liquor to a Native American, Northeast Arkansas Regional Archives, Powhatan, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.

John G. Maxwell.
ad. States.

Lawrence Circuit Court, of the Term of July 18. The grand Jurors had one thousand eight hundred & eighty

And the said John G. Maxwell comes and moves this honorable court to arrest the judgment in this case, from the following reasons, to wit, 1. The indictment appeared does not mention the name of the whom the liquor was sold. The indictment 2. It does not appear by the indictment appeared ~~that~~ what compensation was received for said six gills of whiskey.

Chamberlain & Davis counsel for the defendant.