

Arkansas State Archives

Arkansas Digital Archives

Arkansas Territory

Online exhibits

Penal bond for ferry operation, Henry Morris and Moses Graham

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/exhibits-online-arkansas-territory>

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Penal bond for ferry operation, Henry Morris and Moses Graham, Northeast Arkansas Regional Archives, Powhatan, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.

There is all now by the pursuit that in Henry Henry's story I had given & or his and Henry's words with Mr. Clark's governor the pursuit of the same as the same of the same which they met and tried to be in or in his words our duty according to our habits of mind by this pursuit - why our mind and state the 23rd of Dec^r 1876

The condition of this obligation is such that the within London Henry Morris - Henry has been by the current interest of the Country of Lawrence & his a very large part from above the mouth of Rock Bayou a few of the said Henry Morris shall try to come to be left at the very of our good and right count boat or boat and give me and good attention to the same and not Henry now for far away than the said account with allowed him to charge on my account Henry and further so at the duty require by law of punishment than this obligation to be void and of no effect other than to remain in full force and with

Henry Morris

Richard Henry

Henry Morris

Henry Morris

Henry Morris