Biographical/Historical Note

The National Society Colonial Dames XVII Century (NSCDXVIIC) is a private organization, established in 1914, that has chapters in 45 states and one international chapter in Canada. Their members are required to be women over 18 years old with good moral character and who have the ability to prove direct blood lineage to an ancestor who lived and served prior to 1701 in one of the original colonies in the geographical area of the present United States of America.

The NSCDXVIIC works to preserve historical records and sites, foster interest in colonial times, promote education, and build a library specializing in 17th century colonial American data.
