UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Western District of Arkansas.

Know all Men by these Presents:

That we, John Fuller Nelson Cop, as principal, and as sureties, acknowledge ourselves jointly and severally to owe and be indebted unto the United States of America, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars Each Dollars, to be levied of our goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to the use of the said United States, if default shall be made in the condition following, to-wit :

Whereas, the said Jack Williamson has been brought before JAMES O. CHURCHILL, a United States Commissioner for the Western District of Arkansas, to answer to the charge of Retailing Liquor without paying special tax and upon an examination had, it appearing to said Commissioner that the offence with which the said Jack Williamson was charged had been committed, and that there was probable cause to believe the said Jack Williamson to be guilty thereof, the Commissioner thereupon ordered said John Fuller Nelson Cop witnesses to find sufficient bail in the sum of Five Hundred dollars for their appearance at a District Court of the United States for the Western District of Arkansas, to be holden on the 9th day of May A. D. 1870, at the U. S. Court Room in the city of Van Buren, in said District, to answer what may then and there be objected against him; and that in default of finding such bail they stand committed for trial.

Now, Therefore, the Condition of this Recognizance is such, That if the said John Fuller Nelson Cop shall personally appear at the said Court on the first day of the next May Term thereof, at the U. S. Court Room in the City of Van Buren, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and then and there answer all such matters and things as shall be objected against and abide the orders of the Court, and not depart the said Court without leave, then this Recognizance to be void, otherwise to be in full force and virtue.

Witness my hand and seal this 25th day of March A. D. 1870

John F. Fuller Nelson Cop
