

Arkansas State Archives

Arkansas Digital Archives

---

Finding aids

Guides and finding aids

---

S.C. Turnbo manuscripts, undated

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/finding-aids>

Part of the United States History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

S.C. Turnbo manuscripts, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.

S.C. Turnbo manuscripts
MS.000249

Finding aid prepared by the Arkansas State Archives

---

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit

March 17, 2020

Describing Archives: A Content Standard

Arkansas State Archives
One Capitol Mall
Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201
501-682-6900
state.archives@arkansas.gov

Table of Contents

---

Summary Information .....	3
Biographical/Historical Note .....	4
Scope and Contents .....	4
Administrative Information .....	4
Collection Inventory .....	5

Summary Information

---

Repository Arkansas State Archives

Title S.C. Turnbo manuscripts

Date Undated

Extent 0.4 Cubic feet 1 box English

Language Materials entirely in English.

Language of Materials

Preferred Citation

S.C. Turnbo manuscripts, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Biographical/Historical Note

---

Silas Claiborn Turnbo (1844-1925) was a pioneer historian of the Ozarks region of north Arkansas and south Missouri.

---

Scope and Contents

---

This is a collection of copies of 278 of Silas C. Turnbo's manuscripts numbering from 540 to 819; manuscript 589 missing. The manuscripts' subject dates range from 1830 to 1907.

---

Administrative Information

---

Publication Information

Arkansas State Archives 5/20/2009

Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open for research use.

Conditions Governing Use

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17-U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The person using this material is liable for any infringement.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Marvin E. Tong, Jr., Ardmore, Oklahoma, 1980.

Existence and Location of Originals

Original materials are located at Springfield Art Museum, Springfield, Missouri.

Collection Inventory

540. Recollections of a pioneer, page 1

541. An extreme old age, page 4

542. The first settlement at Peel, Arkansas, page 5

543. Before Lead Hill was a town, page 6

544. The Sisney grave yard, page 8

545. A cooper who lived in a cave, page 10

546. The names of a few pioneer people, page 12

547. Died at an extreme old age, page 14

548. On the head of Swan Creek in the pioneer days, page 16

549. More about Yellville and the early residents there and vicinity, page 19

550. A part of an account of the Coker family: biographical and historical, page 21

551. Five children who were saved from the Mountain Meadow massacre, page 27

552. A few items of early times at Warsaw and vicinity, page 29

553. More recollections of early days, page 32

554. Among the old settlers of Marion County, Arkansas, and the school children at Yellville in the early days, page 38

555. The killing of Daniel Wickersham, page 39

556. The graves of two Confederate soldiers, page 40

557. The Taburs who were early settlers on Big Creek, page 42

558. Was very old, page 44

559. Recollections of a widow woman, page 45

560. A few reminiscences, page 48

561. A short account of Shoal Creek and pro-tem, page 51

562. A few names of the early residents, page 54

563. Two deaths on Shoal Creek in the early days, page 58

564. Tom Norman and his family and the death of four of them, page 60

565. Something about the writers people, page 63

566. Bits of history, page 66

567. Where John Ramsey was hung, page 69

568. An early pioneer, page 71

569. Among the pioneers of Richland Creek, page 74

570. Where John P. Vance is buried, page 78

571. Oakland Arkansas, page 79

572. A death stricken family, page 81

573. Brief items of interest which occurred at Yellville and on Jimmies Creek in the long ago, page 83

574. Reminiscences by Captain J.C. (Curtis) Rea, page 86

575. A few names of early residents, page 88

576. The first settlement made at Pontiac, Missouri, page 91

577. One of the fearless defenders of the Alamo, page 93

578. Found death in the woods, page 95

579. A few more old items about Green County, page 100

580. Looking back in the past, page 102

581. Early times in St. Clair County, Missouri, page 106

582. Where a few pioneers lie buried, page 109

583. Panther bottom stories and how the bottom derived, page 110

584. Forsyth in 1837 and the early settlement of Swan Creek, page 113

585. Old time memories of the buck bottom, page 117

586. Wm. Holt and family and the Holt farm, page 120

587. A short history of the Lize Friend grave yard on Little North Fork, page 123

588. A few names of the pioneer settlers on the left prong of crooked creek and vicinity, page 126

590. A few names of men who were slain in war days, page 128

591. Several old time items worthy of interest, page 129

592. She remembers when the land office was established at Springfield, Missouri, page 133

593. A moving family, page 135

594. Among the pioneer Hogan people, page 137

595. Gainsville, Missouri and Lick Creek, page 138

596. George Washington Bingham, page 141

597. Among the dead, page 144

598. Corn shucking in Arkansas when snow was on the ground, page 147

599. A few thoughts of the past, page 151

600. Was twelve years old when he put on his first pair of shoes, page 153

601. Raising crops in the pioneer days, page 154

602. An old letter, page 155

603. How the people received their mail and how taxes was collected in the early days, page 157

604. The Hollingsworth mill and stories as given by the proprietor, page 159

605. Hauling salt from St. Louis to Forsyth, page 171

606. Low wages and a small price for cattle in the early days, page 173

607. Dialogue between Sam Johnson and a traveler, page 175

608. An old fashioned barbecued dinner, page 177

609. Harvesting wheat, getting it out and milling it in early days, page 180

610. Fall of the boasting young fellow, page 181

611. In a row over a game of crack a blow, page 183

612. Mob violence, page 186

613. The Long grave on Gooley's Spring Creek, page 188

614. She wanted the infant to have enough to eat, page 192

615. An old time lawsuit, page 194

616. Spoiling his boots, page 196

617. A little horse race, page 197

618. A long time ago, page 199

619. A long move in the long ago, page 202 Page 202

620. A few incidents of the pioneer days of Shannon County, page 206

621. A few items of early times, page 210

622. His recollections of being at the first religious service, page 213

623. Eloped with his wifes brother wife, page 214

624. "Pitcher" Potts and Col. Wm. C. Mitchell of Carrollton, Arkansas, in early times, page 217

625. The first circuit court, page 222

626. Brief items as given by an early resident on Findley Creek, page 224

627. Plowing during early times, page 227

628. Travelers voting in Arkansas in the bygone days, page 229

629. He learned the value of deer hides and made better use of them, page 231

630. Some of the ways and doings of the early times, page 233

631. A circuit court and a swing in old times, page 235 Page 235

632. The time when it took 6 months for a letter to pass from north Arkansas to north Missouri, page 238

633. Ashamed of his pants, page 242

634. Her first pair of shoes, page 243

635. He went home without his pants, page 244

636. Something about blacksmith shops and the distribution of mail in the early days, page 246

637. In green and stone counties Missouri in the by gone days, page 247

638. Pioneer talk, page 249

639. More incidents of early days at Yellville, Arkansas, page 253

640. Old time recollections of Elbow Shoals, page 258

641. Recollections of early days in Marion County, Arkansas, as told by a lady contributor, page 267

642. Stories of pioneer days in northwest Arkansas, page 273

643. The 4th of July at Forsyth in 1848, page 278

644. Hunting and freighting in the early days, page 280

645. Early times in St. Louis County, Missouri, page 282

646. Recollections of the first introduction of sorghum seed, page 284

647. How sod land was broke in the pioneer's days, page 286

648. It was wonderful to them, page 288

649. His last dance, page 290

650. An interview with a pioneer settler of Bryants Fork, page 293

651. Early experience, page 297

652. Was 3 years old when he seen his first bear, page 299

253. Raising flax for home use in the early days, page 302

654. Substituting a milk cow for a horse, page 303

655. Exposed by a horseshoe, page 305

656. How a young man was whipped for stealing sugar and other articles, page 312

657. How a thief was caught in a steel trap, page 317

658. Found hung in the woods, page 320

659. Apprehending a murderer in Arkansas, page 322

660. Not a Missourian, page 325

661. Going to school in his shirt tail, page 328

662. Among the schools and school children in the pioneer days, page 329

663. Where I learned the alphabet, page 330

664. A sleepy school teacher, page 332

665. An old time country school, page 334

666. How he learned his alphabet, page 337

667. The first school house built at Prairie Grove, Arkansas, page 338

668. More running foot tracks than teaching, page 341

669. Going to school and wading Rubidoo Creek, page 343

670. Cruel punishment of a little girl at school, page 345

671. In Howard County, Missouri, page 347

672. The long haired school teacher, page 348

673. His first experience at school, page 350

674. Something about schools in the early days, page 351

675. Early school days on Big Creek, page 356

676. How a school was taught in the pioneer days of southeast Missouri, page 357

677. Early school days near Bloomfield, Missouri, page 359

678. Working for the education of their children, page 360

679. The grief of a mother about her starving children, page 362

680. A sad scene, page 363

681. Nearly famished for food, page 364

682. Bewildered in the wild woods, page 366

683. Experience of two boys in hunting for breadstuff in war days, page 369

684. Hardships and starvation in the turbulent days of war, page 372

685. Carrying bread corn from the Arkansas River to the west fork of the White River on horse back, page 373

686. A mixture of stories in one chapter, page 375

687. Pioneer incidents on Sugar Loaf Prairie and vicinity: Among the wolves and buffalo, page 381

688. Two settlers kill a bear near a cabin, page 389

689. They shot a favorite dog, page 394

690. A few incidents of the battle of Wilson Creek and a glimpse at hunting, page 396

691. A way back in the early days of Madison County, Arkansas, page 404

692. Horrible incident of the war and other family history, page 409

693. The sad fate of a hunter, page 414

694. Trampled to death by a horse, page 417

695. Lay out in the bitter cold, page 419

696. The drowning of Sam Nard and Miss Hanna Friend in the early days of Marion County, Arkansas, page 422

697. A faithful father and son, page 425

698. Frozen in the cold and snow, page 426

699. Death of a sick woman at the road side, page 429

700. A dying man tells how he is haunted, page 430

701. Mistook him for a wild turkey and killed his own son, page 437

702. Lost and died in the deep snow, page 439

703. A hunter kills his friend through mistake, page 441

704. Burned to death, page 442

705. Sad misfortune of a family, page 444

706. The drowning of Sam Johnson, page 450

707. A sad story of the long ago, page 454

708. A womans dress saturated with the blood of her dead husband, page 458

709. Disappeared entirely, page 460

710. Sad account of a lost child, page 461

711. Sad fate of Isaac Johnson, page 465

712. A desperate fight among a small band of Indians, page 470

713. Chased by a band of Indians, page 473

714. Attacked by a small band of Indians, page 481

715. Gambling with the Indians, page 482

716. Stories of the Shawnee Indians, page 483

717. An old Indian camp ground, page 490

718. A praying Indian chief and other stories of the red men, page 491

719. A night alarm, page 497

720. Scared by the Indians and stung by nettles, page 501

721. An incident of the great rise in White River in 1824, page 503

722. A cloud burst and a big overflow, page 509

723. A remarkable period of ice and snow , page 513

724. How the great meteoric shower was seen and felt in Hall County, Georgia, page 517

725. How a merry dance was changed to a devoted prayer meeting, page 519

726. How the display appeared at Athens, Tennessee, and its effect on the people, page 521

727. How the remarkable shower of meteors was observed on the Ohio River, page 524

728. Seen the shooting stars, page 527

729. How the memorable meteoric display was observed at Yellville, Arkansas, page 531

730. Saved by a dog, page 534

731. Fast in a hollow tree, page 538

732. A turkey hunter in trouble, page 541

733. Perils of a man and his three sons while fire hunting one night on the White River, page 545

734. A frightful runaway, page 548

735. The prayers of a devoted wife saves her sick husband from death, page 551

736. A wonderful escape from drowning, page 555

737. Saved by an otter hide, page 558

738. Entrapped under a wagon box, page 563

739. Narrow escape from death, page 565

740. Saved by a silver half dollar, page 567

741. His sentence was commuted, page 568

742. They had shot the wrong man, page 571

743. He was afraid of Indians, page 573

744. In the midst of death, page 576

745. How the insult was resented, page 579

746. The strange preacher and the remarkable influence he had on sinners, page 582

747. A foul murder, page 586

748. Women were scarce, page 592

749. Finding a badly rusted gun barrel in the woods, page 594

750. Promoted to the game chicken of the walk, page 595

751. The old hatter shop, page 598

752. Fell over a precipice and was killed, page 601

753. An appalling calamity by lightning, page 603

754. A story of hidden gold and silver in the vicinity of Bee Creek, page 606

755. How an early settler destroyed his life, page 608

756. A day and part of a night at Rock Bridge one court week, page 610

757. An exorbitant price for pulling a tooth, page 613

758. A woman steals a mare and rides her to buffalo, page 614

759. The King and Everette war at Yellville, Arkansas, page 616

760. Shooting at a roguish bull, page 620

761. Living in a bad sense, page 621

762. He knocked the calf down as he was told to do, page 622

763. Finding human skeletons in a cave, page 623

764. It was strange, page 625

765. Shot to death in a discussion of the war, page 627

766. Finding a skeleton of a man in a wilderness

767. A wonderful spring of water, page 634

768. She did not want to be dead as bad as she pretended to, page 635

769. A spring of blood, page 638

770. How he remembered his mother, page 640

771. He desired to hear the word of god, but the devil persuaded the man to listen to him, page 641

772. Old Ned run away with the dead hog, page 642

773. A dancing young fellow got his shoes burned up by the young lady dancers, page 644

774. His gun was tricky and discharged itself twice in less than an hour, page 646

775. Twelve pair of twins, page 647

776. Disinterment of the remains of a young lady after she had been dead 12 or 13 years, page 650

777. The rooster was enjoying a ride on the drift wood, page 652

778. The prayer of a little girl for help, page 653

779. He went to sleep and fell off his horse, page 657

780. A sad scene at the dinner table, page 660

781. Death of John Roberts, page 662

782. Where Joe Allin was shot to death, page 664

783. A novel way to hide money, page 665

784. How sufficient salt for family use was saved throughout the Civil War, page 668

785. Shot and wounded his mare for a buck deer, page 669

786. Shot a sorrel mare for a deer, page 671

787. Acting honorable, page 673

788. He was absent minded and ruined his ax, page 676

789. The men made eyes were cut into two parts, page 677

790. Excitement over a dummy, page 678

791. Nearly lost his breath at seeing a dummy, page 682

792. Amusing incidents, page 685

793. How Ned Cocker wanted the moles destroyed, page 687

794. He spit in his face, page 689

795. They slept in the bed tick, page 690

796. He thought his wife had cut his throat, page 692

797. Crittington and Tankus, page 694

798. Early history of the grave yard at the mouth of Brattons Spring Creek, page 697

799. They met in the chimney, page 702

800. An amusing scene one Saturday night, page 704

802. A foolish expression, page 709

801. Silly remarks of a boy, page 708

803. His brother had been sowing tares, page 710

804. A happy courtship that ended with a tearful disappointment, page 714

805. How he asked for his bride, page 716

806. The boy obeyed, page 717

807. The boaster missed the mark, page 718

808. Torturing wolves by flaying them alive, page 720

809. Killing a mare with an ax, page 724

810. Flaying a possum alive, page 727