PROCLAMATION Of the President of the Convention of the People of the State of Arkansas, Re-convening the Convention.

WHEREAS, By an ordinance of the State Convention, passed on the 21st day of March, A. D. 1861, it was ordained that the President of the Convention be authorized and empowered to convene the Convention at an earlier day than the 19th of August, A. D. 1861, if in his opinion an exigency should arise requiring the same.

AND WHEREAS, from reliable information, I am satisfied that preparations are being made for a war between the citizens of the free and slave States, in which the safety, peace and prosperity of the people of Arkansas are involved, and for the preservation of which we must provide; for which purpose, in my opinion, the Convention should be convened at the earliest practicable time.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID WALKER, President of the Convention, under the authority, and in accordance with the provisions of said ordinance, do declare and make known that a convention will be holden on Monday, the 6th day of May, A. D. 1861, at the city of Little Rock, when and where the Delegates to said Convention are notified to attend as required by the second section of said ordinance.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand as such President, this 20th day of April, A. D. 1861.

DAVID WALKER.

NEW YORK, May 1.—It is reported here that regular trains from Washington commence to-day; also that Gov. Letcher is about to issue a proclamation forbidding the passage of southern troops through Virginia.

A letter from Fort Monroe says there are 2,000 men there, and no batteries will be allowed to be erected within range.

The report of an armistice is wholly untrue.

In Washington nearly every part of the District is telegraphically connected.

Paris letters received to-day say the French government is fully posted on American affairs, and there is no sympathy felt for the Confederate States.

ANNAPOLIS, May 1.—Fortifications commanding the country for two miles around have been thrown up. Something is going on. Orders were given yesterday to arrest all newspaper correspondents.

BALTIMORE, May 1.—Three spontaneous Union meetings were held last night; resolutions were adopted in favor of sustaining the government and approving of Gen. Scott's determination to sustain the national flag. The United States flag was unfurled over the custom house and post office by order of the new officials amid much enthusiasm.

ANNAPOLIS, May 1.—Thomas Scott, of Penn., has taken charge of the military route to Washington. Order is being restored. Transports leave twice a day for Perryville, Baltimore. After the crowd left the Eutaw House, George Lenow cut down the American flag and was arrested by the deputy sheriff.
