John Trice To Be Superintendent At Rohwer Jap Center

John Trice, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Trice, who has been Superintendent of the Sprindale Schools for the past nine years has been appointed Superintendent of the Rohwer Relocation Center Schools.

Announcement of the appointment was made this week by E. B. Whitaker, head of the War Relocation Authority for Arkansas.

Mr. Trice attended Ouachita College and Arkansas State Teachers College at Conway where he received his A. B. degree. He received his Masters Degree from the University of Arkansas.

The new Superintendent and his family will make their home here until the Rohwer Japanese Center is completed at which time they will move to the center. Mr. Trice purchased the Stinson house on Main street this week. He will remain in Little Rock for several weeks studying plans for the center at the Relocation Authority Office. After that time he will maintain an office in McGehee until the Rohwer project is completed.
