

Arkansas State Archives

Arkansas Digital Archives

Japanese American internment in Arkansas

Online exhibits

Letter, George Kaneko to Friends of Rohwer

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/exhibits-online-japanese-american-internment>

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Letter, George Kaneko to Friends of Rohwer, Hazel Retherford papers, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.

Dear Friends of Rohwer,

"Where do we go from here?" That is the problem that confronts us as we look to the future.

We are vitally aware of the part that we must play in post-war America. In order to understand and solve the perplexities that face us which ever way we turn, the older Nisei group of Rohwer is sponsoring a conference on March 2, 3, and 4. The tentative theme of the conference is "NISEI ACTION, TODAY AND TOMORROW."

You are cordially invited to attend our conference and join with us in our various discussions and activities.

Some of the problems that confront us are: What can we contribute to make a better America? What is the part we play in bettering race relations? What are our responsibilities toward returning Nisei service men? These and many other problems face us. Your ideas and contributions will help greatly to make this conference a success.

For your interest the completed detailed conference schedule will be published in the Outpost soon. Some of our guest speakers will be Bill Hosokawa, well-known in newspaper circles and at present associated with the Des Moines Register; James Sugioka, field worker for Committee on War Service from Indianapolis, and Sherwood Eddy, world traveler, author, and lecturer.

We will be looking forward to seeing you at the conference, for we're sure that you will find this timely meeting interesting and constructive.

Very sincerely yours,

Committee on Arrangements
George Kaneko, Chairman