Arkansas State Archives
Arkansas Digital Archives

Finding aids
Guides and finding aids

Archie Moore Jr. collection, supplement I, 1913-1974

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalheritage.arkansas.gov/finding-aids

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation
Archie Moore, Jr. Supplement I, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Use and reproduction of images held by the Arkansas State Archives without prior written permission is prohibited. For information on reproducing images held by the Arkansas State Archives, please call 501-682-6900 or email at state.archives@arkansas.gov.
Archie Moore Jr. collection, supplement I
MG.00031
Finding aid prepared by the Arkansas State Archives

This finding aid was produced using the Archivists' Toolkit
June 12, 2020
Describing Archives: A Content Standard
Table of Contents

Summary Information .................................................................................................................................................................................. 3
Biographical/Historical Note........................................................................................................................................................................... 4
Scope and Contents..................................................................................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information........................................................................................................................................................................... 4
Collection Inventory .................................................................................................................................................................................... 6
  Church souvenir programs........................................................................................................................................................................... 6
  Miscellaneous material ............................................................................................................................................................................... 6
  Arkansas Teachers Association programs ............................................................................................................................................... 7
  Arkansas Teachers Association: “The Bulletin” ..................................................................................................................................... 7
  School bulletin ......................................................................................................................................................................................... 8
  Fraternal organizations .......................................................................................................................................................................... 8
  Miscellaneous ....................................................................................................................................................................................... 8
Summary Information

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repository</th>
<th>Arkansas State Archives</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Title</td>
<td>Archie Moore Jr. collection, supplement I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Date [inclusive]</td>
<td>1913-1974</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extent</td>
<td>0.02 Cubic feet 1 reel microfilm</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language</td>
<td>English</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Language of Materials</td>
<td>Materials entirely in English.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Microform [Reel]</td>
<td>MG.00031</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Preferred Citation

Archie Moore, Jr. Supplement I, Arkansas State Archives, Little Rock, Arkansas.
Biographical/Historical Note

Archie Moore, Jr., was born in Little Rock, Arkansas. He is a graduate of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. Moore began working at the United States Postal Service in 1989. He was also an antique dealer and collector who specialized in Black Americana. He was active in the historical community and was a member of the Arkansas and National chapters of the Afro-American Historical and Genealogical Society. Moore joined the board of the Arkansas Humanities Council in 2007 and was a member and historian at Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas.

Moore collected materials related to the Arkansas Teachers Association, a professional organization for Arkansas's African American teachers. It was established in 1898 on the campus of Branch Normal College, now the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. In November 1968, the Arkansas Teachers Association held its last convention in Hot Springs, Arkansas and merged with the Arkansas Education Association (A.E.A.) on July 1, 1969.

Scope and Contents

The collection contains materials related to churches, schools, and fraternal organizations. It also includes programs and journals of the Arkansas Teachers Association (A.T.A.).

Administrative Information

Publication Information
Arkansas State Archives 11/18/2008

Conditions Governing Access
This collection is open for research use.

Conditions Governing Use
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17-U.S. Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. The person using this material is liable for any infringement.
Immediate Source of Acquisition

Collection Inventory

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Church souvenir programs</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1. Mt. Zion Baptist Church “Newette,” Little Rock, Arkansas, 1942</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church, Augusta, Arkansas, 1966</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Wesley United Methodist Church, directory, Little Rock, Arkansas, 1971</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Miscellaneous material</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2. Program: The Smart Set Club, second annual dance at Dreamland Ballroom, Little Rock, Arkansas, 1938</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3. Program: Gibbs High School, graduating exercises, Little Rock, Arkansas, 1926</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Program: Osceola Rosenwald School, commencement exercises, Osceola, Mississippi County, Arkansas, 1940</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Program: Colored Community Chorus at Dunbar High School, Little Rock, Arkansas, 1930</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
6. Flyer: Governor Winthrop Rockefeller administration, “Negroes Have Important Jobs and Appointments” [undated]

7. Marriage certificate: Marriage performed by Minster of Gospel London Moore, Hempstead County, Arkansas, 1869

9. Fraternal organization: Mosaic Templars, quarterly report from Texarkana, Arkansas, 1927

Arkansas Teachers Association programs

1. “Program of the Thirty-ninth Annual Convention of the Association of Teachers of Negro Youth of Arkansas,” April 15-17, 1937, Arkansas Agricultural, Mechanical and Normal College (A. M. and N.), Pine Bluff

Arkansas Teachers Association: “The Bulletin”

School bulletin

1. Walters-Southland Normal and Industrial Institute, Lexa, Phillips County, Arkansas, 1937-1938

Fraternal organizations

1. Mosaic Templars: “Death Policy of National Grand Temple of Mosaic Templars of America” for Loyd Roberson (juvenile), Bell Palace, Number 247, Texarkana, Arkansas, 1924 June

Miscellaneous

2. Newsletter: “The Colored Churchman” [Episcopal], Little Rock, Arkansas, 1929 December, volume 1, number 3

3. Program: Phyllis Wheatly Young Women's Christian Association (Y.W.C.A.), Little Rock, Arkansas, 1950 January 16

5. Correspondence and accident report: J.D. Arnold Company, Little Rock, Arkansas, from Oklahoma City Construction Company (injury of Black Diamond, a colored employee), 1913 January 13