Department of State

Washington, January 9, 1875.

To His Excellency

The Governor of the State of Arkansas, Little Rock.

Sir:

The Minister of the United States at Paris has informed this Department of the desire on the part of the Minister of the Interior of France, to obtain copies of official publications on the prison and penitentiary establishments of the United States.

I shall consequently be obliged if you will cause to be forwarded to this Department for the disposition above named, such official publications emanating from your State as may be available.

I have the honor to be,

Your Excellency's
Obedient servant
