Dear W. Conway Esq
Little Rock Ark

February 1846
Secretary of
Franklin R Taylor

LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS,

February 4

Sir

Having established myself, in this City, for the purpose of conducting and transacting an

AUCTION, COMMISSION AND FORWARDING BUSINESS,

I take the liberty of soliciting your patronage, and am now fully prepared to receive
"CONSIGNMENTS," of any description, whatever.
Sales will be effected, at any and at all times, at the "Auction Mart," upon Slaves, Real Estate, Merchandise, Household Furniture &c. &c. Returns made immediately after sales. Liberal advances made upon consignments, when required.

The undersigned begs leave to express a hope, that from his long experience and fidelity in the above business, he will merit and secure the confidence and PATRONAGE of his friends.

Merchandise consigned for re-shipment, will be forwarded with despatch.

The "AUCTION MART" will have regular sales on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday's, and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

With prudence, and attention to business, he hopes to merit the confidence of his friends.

Very Respectfully, Yours,

FRANKLIN R. TAYLOR.
