Quartermaster General's Office,

Washington, D. C., May 30th 1867.

Sir:

Your report of officers to whom public moneys and military supplies have been transferred during the month of April 1867, has been received.

The report of Quartermaster's Stores and Public Moneys should be stated separately from that of Clothing, Camp and Garrison Equipage, as the accounts are examined and settled by different officers of this and the Treasury Departments.

In future, please conform to this direction.

Respectfully, your obedient servant,

By order of the Quartermaster General:

C. H. Thomas.

a. c. m. Genl., Bot. Maj. Genl., U. S. A.

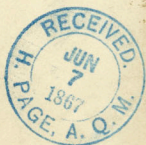

To Brs. Col. Henry Page,
Apt. Quartermaster,
Little Rock, Ark.

NOTE.—Mark reply: "Section F, Accounts Division, Book 59, P. 123."

Washington D.C.
May 30th 1867.
