Biographical/Historical Note

The University of Arkansas-Fayetteville is a public land-grant, research university in Fayetteville, Arkansas. It is the flagship of the University of Arkansas System and the largest university in the state. The university was founded on March 27, 1871 as Arkansas Industrial University. In 1899, students initiated the change of the university's name to the University of Arkansas, and they chose the Razorback as their mascot in 1910. The University of Arkansas System includes 13 branches and six units located in Fayetteville and across the state.

Scope and Contents

This collection contains university and departmental publications from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville, formerly known as Arkansas Industrial University, from 1873 to 1989.
