I, Mark Little do solemnly swear that I am duly and regularly commissioned as a Deputy U. S. Marshal for said District; that the employment of a posse comitatus at Fayetteville Ark under the Act of Congress of June 14, 1858, was actually and indispensably necessary to enable me to serve the warrants in my possession, and that I could not without great peril have attempted to serve the warrants entrusted to me without the assistance of a posse comitatus; that I have examined the within account and certify that the services were performed and actually rendered as therein stated, and that the amount charged therefore is just, and that I have no interest in the same.

Mark Little
Deputy U. S. Marshal.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of May A. D. 1899 by the above-named Mark Little who personally appeared and was by me known to be the identical person he represents himself.

I, JACOB YOES, U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Arkansas, do certify that I have carefully inquired into the matters as set forth in the foregoing affidavits, and that the matters and things therein set forth are true, and the services of the posse comitatus employed by my Deputy were absolutely necessary to the due and proper service and execution of said warrants for the period of 8 days; and that a posse comitatus could not have been obtained any nearer than the place said posse comitatus was employed, and this account is approved for $ 24.00
