Yellville October 13th 1849
To Allan Wood Adjt Genl. of Arkansas

Sir

Having in my custody four persons charged with the murder of Loomis Y. King and others, which said persons are in my custody by and under the order of the circuit court of Marion county now about to adjourn. And where as the state of public feeling is very unsettled in the county of Marion at the present time, I deem it prudent as well for the protection and safe keeping of said prisoners as to preserve the public peace to solicit you to remain in this county and assist the civil authorities in preserving the peace.

Yours Respectfully
John Hargrave Sheriff
